VARIOUS MATTERS

Yesterday was Baby Carriage day in the parks.

Paper hangers and their men are working early and late.

Owners of vacuum cleaners are in the height of their busy season.

Somerset lodge works the Fellow Craft degree this evening.—adv.

Schools are preparing to observe Arbor and Bird day on April 22.

Many pansies and pretty mountain daisies are being set in vases or borders.

It is said that arbutus is earlier than it has been any season since 1902 when it was in bloom in March.

Hartford papers note among those at the ball of the Ladies of Charity Monday evening, Miss Isabel Crawford of Norwich, who were princess lace over pink.

Sale at Spiritual Academy today and tomorrow, aprons, fancy articles, cake, candy. Supper tonight, 15c. Special Thursday 25c.—adv.

The state convention of the Young People's societies of the Universalist churches is held in Danbury Unitarian church on Friday and Saturday of this week.

The maple sugar makers waited a week for a change in the weather, but on account of the continued warm weather and absence of freezing nights the season is over.

Old soldiers are recalling the fact that forty-five years ago this week was a time of excitement following the news of General Robert E. Lee's surrender, on April 3.

Horace Johnson is out with the following warning: Farmers should dig making catch basins along the small streams flowing through their lands for stock and irrigation. Water should not be allowed to go to waste.

Of local interest is the announcement, that, following the Methodist conference, Rev. Albert E. Legg, of Providence, who declined to continue at St. Paul's church, in that city, is succeeded by Rev. Frederick C. Baker from Fairhaven.

Prominent lawyers are receiving from Judge George W. Wheeler of Bridgeport invitations for a reception at his home April 14 in honor of Chief Justice Frederick B. Hall, Judge Alberto Roraback and Judge Elias Robinson.

Look for Halley's comet tomorrow, April 7, at 4:32 a. m. To find the comet before dawn, look just above the spot where the sun is to rise and the nebula will be seen. The direction of the tail is at present away from the earth. Use opera glasses.

Capt. George R. Case of Hartford had a half-page illustrated article in The Post of that city upon "the year journey of Halley's comet," with a good portrait of the author, which will be prized by his friends and amateur astronomers in all parts of the state.

State deputy revenue collectors have been notified that the considerable increases made in the tax on tobacco and cigarettes by the act of August 5, 1909, will go into effect on July 1 in this district. The increase in tobacco and snuff is from six to eight cents a pound.

The W. C. T. U. convention calendar includes: Washington, D. C., June 1-11; national convention, Baltimore, 12-17; the state convention in Danbury the third week in October, by invitation of the Danbury union; Windham county silver anniversary in Putnam, some time in May.

Tourists returning from Florida state that the winter has been a cold one, and many people who visited there because of the supposed hot climate came north to get warm. Last week there were two heavy frosts, which killed string beans and nipped potato tops. The season has been a very unusual one for Florida.

GRANTING DOG LICENSES.
About 75 Have Thus Far Been Issued by Town Clerk Holbrook—Rush Must Commence Soon.

With only this month remaining for the securing of dog licenses and tags, Town Clerk Holbrook is anticipating a rush of applicants for the remainder of the month. Thus far but 75 licenses have been issued, although there have been considerable delays in the tedious delay and hold up of the town clerk. Should a dog be licensed now and ride before May 1, the fee is returned.

SHOT TWO DOGS.
Dog Warden Stanton Gets Busy After His Return from Montreal.

Directly after his return from Montreal and other points in Canada, Dog Warden G. H. Stanton was called upon to shoot two dogs. He declares that his trip was the finest ever and one which will not be soon forgotten. He visited the court and municipal buildings in Montreal in particular and the making of maple syrup and sugar at another point in that country was an interesting process.

Lieut. O. J. Stewart Resigns.
In general orders from the adjutant general's office, the resignation of First Lieut. Oliver J. Stewart of Stamford, commissionary coast artillery corps, accepted, and he is honorably discharged from the military service of this state.
